

3rd CNB COURSE ON INTRODUCTION TO RESEARCH

The Centro Nacional de Biotecnología (CNB-CSIC) is organising its 3rd Course on Introduction to Research for students in the final years of any university degree in science. The course is designed for qualified, highly motivated students who would like to contact the scientists at the CNB. The goal of this course is to provide an overview of the centre's cutting-edge research facilities.

The four-week course will be held on 6 – 31 July 2015. Up to 12 selected students will be registered free of charge.

For four weeks, the students will participate in the scientific activities of two research departments of their choice (2 weeks each), attend seminars on hot topics in today's life sciences, and meet and talk with CNB scientists. Candidates are counselled to visit our website to learn about our projects and interests.

The completed application form must be received before 29 May 2015, by e-mail to amora@cnb.csic.es or by post to the Centro Nacional de Biotecnología (3rd Course on Introduction to Research), c/ Darwin #3, 28049 Madrid, Spain.
